4 I moved from Texas to Carson...I took this route..mostly desert and will be decent roads through friendly territory. Long desert roads with many 80mph signs...just out of Vegas was the worst roads. Keep your tank full until you get to El Paso...lots of areas with minimal Gas.

3 I also have driven to DC a couple times...this route is fine. Adds about 4 hours, but you should see much snow and keeps you out of the mountains in Colorado and new Mexico. I10 will see you 120 just outside of el paso and run you through North Texas. You'll go tip to tip in Texas ITS A BIG

Keep the Z off I-80. Can be sketchy in winter.

Don't forget to enjoy America the Beautiful during your itinerary. She must be saved or she will soon be filled with diseased hubs like all the Demonrat-run cities, including San Francisco, Minneapolis, Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Baltimore, etc.

Like my father And his father, and his father before Watch the soil burn in the fire War after war Done things I didn't know I could For the common good Tomorrow I ride at dawn Give a man a hundred years And he'll want a hundred more Give him a hundred choices And he still chooses war From Salem Poor to Genghis Khan Tomorrow I ride at dawn I was born for battle I was born to lead I was born to help those who have dreams of being free Brother stop your crying, sister dry your eyes You'll hear my medals ringing from Shreveport to Shabagan Tomorrow I ride at dawn At first light, I march to battle Not my own life, but brothers' I must save And when you hear those pipes and drummers You'll know I marched to glory or proudly to my grave Tell my loved ones they must carry on For tomorrow I ride at dawn Tomorrow I ride at dawn Tomorrow I ride at dawn Tell my loved ones they must carry on For tomorrow I ride at dawn
